Please select one of the three following topics and submit a typewritten paper of at least (3) pages in length with a maximum of (5) total pages, explaining in detail your personal view points, feelings, and possible solutions about the topic you have selected.

A committee of East Brunswick police officers will review the entries for content, writing ability, originality, and quality of listed view points. Please feel free to utilize as many research sources of material that you may deem necessary and be advised that the winners of the scholarships will receive notification prior to the awards ceremony conducted by East Brunswick High School at the end of the school year.

TOPIC 1. Drugs in our school systems. How can we educate the youth of our nation against the problem, what can we do to try and eliminate the problem, and how can you help combat the drug problems now and in years to come?

TOPIC 2. Weapons appearing in our public schools. Whose fault is it? Who should be held responsible for the outbreak of violence? Is it the school administration, or is it the fault of the student's parents? How can we solve this dilemma?

TOPIC 3. Racial tension and bias related crimes are taking place at an alarming rate in our public schools. What can we do, you the student and we the police officer, to combat this problem?

Please forward your completed entries to Mr. Les Szukics by the date indicated on the bottom of this form.
